Directory of Social Service Community Organisations in the Northern Territory

OCTOBER 2016

Northern Territory Council of Social Service

Welcome to the 2016 edition of the Northern Territory Council of Social Service Directory of Social Service Community Organisations in the Northern Territory. We hope you find this a useful resource for your day-to-day work.

NTCOSS is a peak body of the non-for-profit sector in the NT and an advocate for those who are most disadvantaged in our community. We do this in many different ways such as working with our member organisations to develop policy; advocacy to government; working with organisations to build their capacity to deliver effective services to their clients; and working with other peak bodies.

You can also find an updated version of this Directory online at www.ntcoss.org.au

If you would like to provide feedback on the directory or would like your organisation to become a member of NTCOSS, please contact us.

Directory Content

This directory contains information on social service community organisations in the Northern Territory that provide social and community services/and or support services at a Territory-wide, regional or local level. For your convenience you will find at the back of this directory contact phone numbers for Government, Local Government and Community Health Centres.

Disclaimer

The information contained in the directory has been supplied by the organisations and while NTCOSS has taken care to ensure the information is correct, we realise there may be some errors. NTCOSS is aware that all Community Services may not be listed in the Directory but we have tried to include all organisations that provide a service with up-to-date information.

If you know of an organisation that should be included or have updated information on an organisation please let us know by forwarding to NTCOSS, PO Box 1128 Nightcliff NT 0814, or by emailing: admin@ntcoss.org.au

ASYASS believes that all people have a right to secure, appropriate and affordable housing. Many young people are often disadvantaged in their access to housing through factors such as inexperience, family crisis and breakdown, financial insecurity and community prejudice.

Services Provided

1. Housing Program
2. Refuge/Crisis Accommodation

3. Emergency Relief Program
4. Ampe Akweke (Single Young Women / Mothers program)

Crisis Youth Refuge

Provides safe supported accommodation for young men and women, 15-17yo, inclusive 24 hrs/7days a week. Accommodation can be provided for one night up to 3 months. During their stay at ASYASS Youth Refuge, young people will also be provided supported though case management (where appropriate).

Young people will also be supported to:

- identify and work towards their goals
- address their health, education and income needs
- develop appropriate life skills
- (re)engage with family (where appropriate); and
- Access long term accommodation where necessary.

Youth Housing Program

The Youth Housing Program Provides semi-independent accommodation (up to 12 months) to young people 16-21yo. The ASYASS Housing Program currently manages these properties are located across Alice Springs. The housing program offers young people, who are unable to reside with family, through case management the opportunity to re-engage with education, training or to gain employment, as well as to develop and strengthen life skills (including living skills) required to establish themselves independently. Where appropriate ASYASS also supports and encourages involvement with family.

Ampe Akweke (pronounced – umba kooka) “Little Babies Place”

Ampe Akweke is a place for single young women / mothers Program 14-23 years of age. Ampe akweke offers both outreach support and residential support, if the single young women / mothers have no where suitable and safe to stay. Young women can stay in the safe house for up to 3 months. Ampe akweke works with the young women to ensure they have theirs, their unborn child or their babies health needs met. Ampe akweke family support workers provide parenting education and support as well as case management to all young women accessing the program.

Emergency Relief Program

ASYASS administers Emergency Relief funds to young people who find themselves needing financial assistance in the form of:

- purchase vouchers of a fixed value (e.g for food, clothes)
- assistance to obtain appropriate forms of identification
- material assistance such as blankets, clothing or school needs
- appropriate referrals to other services that help to address underlying causes of financial crisis

This Program is administered from our office located at 12 Undoolya Road

Migration Support Services

As part of the world-wide Red Cross tracing network, Red Cross tracing in the Northern Territory re-establishes contact between relatives separated as a result of war, conflict or international disaster. Various free-of-charge services are offered, including tracing, the Red Cross message service, family reunion, health & welfare reports and related services. Support is provided to people seeking asylum and living in the Northern Territory while they are awaiting determination of a claim for protection.

Emergency relief is available for any migrant experiencing a crisis, in the form of casework, limited financial assistance and in-kind support. Red Cross provides support and assistance to people who have been trafficked, or who have experienced forced marriage, through the Support to Trafficked People Program. Red Cross also conducts monitoring visits to immigration detention centres in Australia and offshore.

Blood Bank

The Blood Bank collects blood from voluntary donors for the provision of adequate and safe blood products for use in hospitals.

Communities for Children Program

Enables the establishment of community committees in both Palmerston and Tiwi Islands. The committees then allocate funding to a number of local programs to support families and children.

Disaster Response

Operation of the National Registration & Inquiry System (NRIS) allows concerned relatives to track family members who find themselves caught up in disasters. Australian Red Cross also provides assistance for people affected by emergencies and disasters. Trained staff and volunteers identify those who need counselling & support and provide basic necessities, care and comfort.

First Aid Training

Public courses for First Aid training are available in Darwin at two locations, Katherine and Alice Springs. For all bookings please call 1300 367 428.

Good Start Breakfast Club

Provides projects that support access to nutritious food for vulnerable people. Material aid in the form of breakfast is provided at primary schools and secondary schools to ensure children in need receive a good breakfast before study.

Child Australia has grown from an organisation focused on the inclusion of children with additional needs in early childhood settings to one that delivers an interdependent network of activities designed to achieve the best long-term outcomes for our community's children. Placing the child at the centre of our support model. Child Australia's activities include programs that support parents and families as children's first teachers; the delivery of exemplar services in the education and care of children; professional development and support services to enhance the quality of care in early and middle childhood settings and a crucial role in sector leadership and advocacy.

- This workshop is designed to ensure that staff, volunteers and community members understand their mandatory-reporting legal & ethical obligations as well as increasing confidence in knowing when & where to report abuse or neglect.
- Participants learn about indicators of harm as well as comprehensive assessment of risk and protective factors.
- Discussions include practical strategies to reduce the risk of harm to children in families, organisations and communities.
- The workshop can be individually tailored to urban and remote participants.

- Workshops are available at no cost to organisations funded by Dept. of Children and Families and are available in Darwin and Alice Springs every 6 months.
- Advanced bookings are essential.

Tools & Resources for Engaging Vulnerable Children & Families

- This is a fun & interactive workshop that introduces a wider range of local, national and international child-abuse-prevention tools and resources for working with vulnerable children and families.
- Through practical application, participants gain confidence & competence in using the resources in their work places.
- The workshop can be tailored to urban and remote community services and for those working with newly arrived migrant or refugee families.

Child-Safe Organisations

- This workshop provides information, research and practical resources to support agencies to improve their work practices with children and young people
- Policies, protocols and processes are identified to assist agencies to assess, evaluate and introduce child-friendly and child-safe practices.
- Organisations have an opportunity to identify risk and protective factors within their own practices and within their organisation
- NAPCAN staff can review current child protection and mandatory reporting policies
- Sample policies are made available for all participating agencies.
